whether the American spirit could be inculcated in foreigners by the foreign press, as well as by the American press.

"Of course not," Rabbi Wise retorted, "The American press is far more capable of expressing the ideas and ideals of this country. I believe that the foreign press should be taken out of the hands of those who use it and that it should be morally censored.

Rabbi Wise denounced the Russian Soviet government when asked his attitude toward it.

Drenches Thousands on Shore PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.—The 13,000 ton cargo carrier John Adams was launched to-day on the Delaware, Mrs. Herbert Lederer, New York, christened the ship.

The vessel was launched sideways and as it struck the water there was an unexpected rush of water which drenched thousands gathered along the shore to witness the launching. A motor boat was upset, throwing its two occupants into the water. They were rescued with difficulty.

"I believe that America ought never to shake hands with the pretentious assassins who call themselves the Soviet goernment," he said. "There is not much difference between Czar Lenine and Czar Nicholas. The Soviet goernment does not represent Russia, just a minority."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.-Pigs-just

A plea for a more friendly attitude on the part of Americans toward the foreign-born who enter the United States was made yesterday by Rabbi Stephen S. Wisc in an address under the auapices of the League for Political Education, in Carnegle Hall. He urged that such treatment would be the best Americanization program possible.

"Treat the foreign-born who come to Americanization program possible.

"Treat the foreign-born who come to Americanization program possible.

"Treat the foreign-born who come to Americanization program with the Langue for rich and poor elike in this country, or at least there cught to be. We must be careful to think that the ideas of the foreign-born will be on many things which we do in this country. What an example to foreigners one of our lynchings must be.

"You can't Americanize people by talking. They can not be Americanized by what you are. Americanize to be a pastime but a consecrated lifetime, spread abroad royally through sympathy and fellowship."

Following the lecture by Dr. Wise, a volley of questions was shot at him. "Do you think prohibition is beneficial to this country." The was asked.
